Mrs. David N. Housh, nee Schatzmann, is se riously ill at her home in Dayton.

The funeral of Mrs Elizabeth Roff Davis took place yesterday morning from the residence of her son, Mr. Clay Davis of Rectorville, the interment being in the family buryingground at that place.

The mother of Miss Ella Reese Stoops, daughter of Dr. A. B. Stoops of Mt. Sterling, who was marrid Wednesday to Mr. Eugene M. Terry of South Boston, Va., was formerly Miss Belle Jones, daughter of Mrs. Lucinda Jones of Washington.

The officials of Central University say they de not fear any trouble over the suit filed by the Administrator of the S. P. Walters estate at Richmond for the recovery of a $26,000 bequest, as such actions were fully considered troduce in the House this week. before the consolidation of the two Colleges.

Miss Nora Clinger gave a charming and delightful euchre party at the pretty home of her sister, Mrs. George Pollitt, in the East End, last evening in honor of Mrs. Emma D. Weimer of St. Louis, now here on a visit to her mother.

Miss Elizabeth Half of Forest avenue entertained last evening with six-handed-euchre for her guest, Miss Robinson of Winchester. Miss Hall was assisted in receiving by her mother, exclaimed: Mrs. John Hall, Miss Robinson, and her brother, Mr. Hall. Mrs. Hall looked very handsome in black silk. Miss Hall was lovely in a creation of green crepe over flowered taffata, while Miss charming in a white embroideried net over silk.

The rooms were profusely decorated in red carnations. After many spirited games the prizes were awarded: First-Miss Harriett Debyns, bisque ornaments; Mrs. J. Barbour Russell, lace stock; Mrs. Will Hall, hat brush; return to their post of duty. Mr. Holton Key, pearl stick pin; Mr. Henry Key, leather purse; Mr. Martin, white silk neck scarf. A delicious collation was beautifully served during the evening. Miss Robinson, that had wandered from the fold. the guest of honor, is the possessor of a very beautiful voice and she sang several choice for the lost sheep and will keep it as a pet, selections last evening, which were greatly notwithstanding it came near frightening him

Yesterday's Charleston (W. Va.,) Daily Gazette says the Beerlew Theater in that city was filled to the doors Wednesday night to enjoy the performance of the excellent company of singers and comedians in the new musical comedy "Buster Brown," to be seen here tonight. The paper pronounces the company a fine one all the way through, and the theater-goers of Maysville will miss one of the best attractions of the season if they fail to see Buster tonight.

Prof. A. N. Gordon, brother of Miss Fannie I. Gordon of this city, who for several years has conducted a private school for young men near Lexington, has recently purchased the Jack Hendricks place near Frankfort and he will establish his school at that place next September. The house on the property was built by General Hendricks when he was Attorney General of the state and cost close to $40,000 The place contains ninety-six acres of land.

There has probably never been a character n the funny pages of the big New York dailies that has so strongly caught the public fancy as | charged with killing Abe Cline, reported that has Richard F. Oucault's creation of "Buster Brown" for The New York Herald. True, Buster is a "young imp," but he is a very lovable one, and as for his knowing dog, Tige, why almost every boy and girl in the land loves him. It is, therefore, not surprising to learn that these have been put into a play which will be shown here at the Opera-house tonight. Mr. Melville B. Raymond has the sole dramatic rights to what will undoubtedly prove a gold mine. The production is spectacular, requiring the services of a ballet, a chorus, and a number of pretty girls who wear some of Wanamaker's finest creations. Seats on sale at

THIS SALE IS FOR CASH ONLY. NO GOODS CHARGED OR SENT ON APPROVA

The greatest sale in our history—the greatest because our stock is the largest; green cause the prices have been cut deepest. The sale begins Saturday, January 14th. will last two weeks. On February 1st we take stock, and it is our object so clear piece of window goods in our store. We can count the cash much better and much than goods, and need both cash and room for our spring and summer goods. We are dent that our prices are lower for the same grade of goods than any store in this see the state, and honestly believe as low if not lower than any store in the country. Sor chants have the disease of carrying goods over from season to season, but, like S' Raleigh when running his thumb over the block that was to take off his head, he said "this is a sharp instrument and it cures all diseases," and we used just such an instrument the prices, and we wish to say with bold emphasis that if the goods in this sale are not cheap at prices quoted, then they would be high to you at any price. We give you some prilated to be a sharp instrument and it cures all the country of little lots too small to mention. Remember, double stamps on Saturday only.

Parts he was in the same page and the same ago at the same page and the same ago at the same page. Parts he was in the same page ago at the sa Osborne of this county Tuesday, had a thrilling experience in his younger days. His parents were brutally murdered a few years ago at their home near Paris by a colored man, who stepped into their home and began to cut and slash the family with a corn knife. While endesvoring to defend them young Conway saw both of his parents killed. He himself was cut so badly that he was left for dead by the colored fiend, who went to pursue other members of the family. Conway's brother and a neighbor succeeded in killing the murderer, after a desperate fight.

To the people of Maysville and surrounding country for their kindness in extending to me such a liberal share of their patronage during the year just closed, which I am proud to say has been the most successful of my business life in Maysville. I assure all that I appreciate this kindness towards me to the fullest extent, and promise that I will make renewed efforts to serve them more faithfully and satisfactorily, if possible, during the year just begun. While my sales have been unusually large, I keep a close watch on my business, and at all times my stock will be found to be full and complete and of the very best the markets afford, My last shipment of those FANCY NEW CROP MOLASSES direct from the plantation just received. See the goods and get my prices before buying; I can please in both. FANCY FALL CATCH MACKEREL just received from Boston. No finer ever offered, and guaranteed full weight packages. Although coffees have advanced continuously for some time I am still in position, because of my very heavy purchases long ago of GREEN COFFEES, to sell at old prices; and you will find my 15c, 20c and 25c Coffees very much superior to any sold in Maysville, even at much higher prices. Fresh roasted every week. Finest TEAS a specialty; new crop just in. My assortment of

Mid-Winter CLEARAN

Everybody recognizes in this annual event the greatest bargain opportunities of the year, and they are never disappointed. Adhering strictly to our policy never to carry stocks from one season to another causes this grand semi-annual slaughter. We believe in starting each season with a brand new stock. The heavy discount purchases we received this season will assist us in making this sale a towering triumph. Thousands upon thousands of dollars worth of fine Winter Footwear and Rubbers, hundreds of pairs of Slippers, remnants of the recent immense purchases, go on sale at One-Third Their Actual Value.

This is the season of the year when all broken lots, short and poor selling lines are crowded out of our store at one price or another. All this class of merchandise must find new owners at once, our store being closed all day yesterday to mark these goods to make this immense sacrifice. At this sale you will buy at retail at prices actually ower than this immense organization can secure at factories on lots amounting to hundreds of thousands of dollars. We do not count it a loss during house-cleaning time; 's a gain to us as well as a gain to you. Read the bargain list and then you will realize why thousands of shoppers flock to these annual house-cleaning sales.
